Positioned in the sought-after residential neighbourhood of Porto de Mós, this newly completed 4-bedroom villa offers a carefully considered interpretation of contemporary living in the Western Algarve. Set on a private 1,009 m² plot, the residence combines architectural clarity with functional design, creating spaces that respond naturally to everyday life and suit entertaining and extended stays.

Sliding glass doors open directly onto landscaped gardens as a natural extension of the home. A spacious swimming pool, sun terraces, and a dedicated barbecue area are focal points for social gatherings or peaceful afternoons under the Algarve sun.

3 Comfortable Bedroom Suites

The first floor accommodates the private living quarters. The principal suite includes a walk-in dressing area, an elegant bathroom and a spacious terrace overlooking the surrounding neighbourhood. A further en suite bedroom with a built-in wardrobe and private balcony provides comfortable accommodation while maintaining a high degree of privacy for residents and guests alike.
